RESCAP BORROWER CLAIMS TRUST,
Objector
v.
RICHARD D. RODE,
Creditor-Beneficiary

REPORT OF ROBERT M. ADAMS, CPA

I have been engaged by Richard D. Rode to assist him with the identification and quantification of economic damages he has suffered in the above case.

Documents and Information Utilized

I used documents and my conversations with Richard D. Rode in performing my work and developing my opinions. The documents I inspected pertaining to the Residential Capital, L.L.C., et al, Debtors v. Richard D. Rode, Creditor-Beneficiary case include (but are not limited to) the documents provided by Richard D. Rode and Maudeena Rode. Those documents include copies of bank statements, cancelled checks, mortgage payment confirmations, mortgage statements, escrow analysis statements, detailed loan payment histories, credit reports, etc.

Background

Richard D. Rode purchased 2301 West Lawther Lane, Deer Park, Texas in March 2001, utilizing a $272,850 mortgage from North American Mortgage Co. He refinanced the property with Southtrust Mortgage Co. in 2003. That mortgage was sold to Homecomings Financial in 2004. Unsuccessful attempts were made to modify the mortgage, and Homecomings Financial sent delinquency notices and started foreclosure proceedings. Mr. Rode filed suit in 2011.

Legal fees and costs paid by Richard Rode

- A. Richard Rode paid $61,399.16 to the Texas Equal Access to Justice Foundation/Uzick & Oncken, PC on March 29, 2011, for legal services provided by Uzick & Oncken PC in connection with the lawsuit (Exhibit A). The current invoice 26147 totals $48,080.02 (Exhibit B). But for the circumstances requiring filing and pursuing the lawsuit, Richard Rode would not have incurred, or had to pay for those legal fees. It is my opinion that Mr. Rode has been economically damaged in the amount of not less than $48,080.02.
- B. Richard Rode paid an aggregate $11,000.00 to Attorney Wendy Allison Nora (Exhibit C), for fees and costs incurred in pursuing the lawsuit. But for the circumstances requiring filing and pursuing the lawsuit, Richard Rode would not have incurred, or had to pay for those legal fees and costs. It is my opinion that Mr. Rode has been economically damaged in the amount of not less than $11,000.00.

My opinions pertaining to the economic damages resulting from the payment of attorney fees and costs are based on the documents I reviewed and my conversations with Mr. Rode.

Additional 2009 income tax paid by Richard Rode GMAC Mortgage (parent or owner of Homecomings Financial) issued an erroneous 2009 Form 1099-C, Cancellation of Debt, to Richard Rode, in the amount of $9,673.69 (Exhibit D). This was the aggregate amount of Mr. Rode's mortgage payments that Homecomings Financial/GMAC Mortgage misapplied, and did not give Mr. Rode credit for. Because of the issuance of this erroneous Form 1099-C, Mr. Rode incurred additional 2009 federal income tax in the amount of not less than $2,418. It is my opinion that Mr. Rode was economically damaged in the amount of $2,418.

My opinion pertaining to the economic damages resulting from the issuance of the erroneous 2009 Form 1099-C is based on the documents I reviewed and my conversations with Mr. Rode.

I reserve the right to amend or update the above observations if I receive additional relevant information.
